Carrigaline Parish

Monday December 8th is the feast of the Immaculate Conception

There is no Mass on Sunday evening but we will do a Mass on Monday evening at 7.30pm. So Masses on the 8th will be 10a.m, 11.30a.m and 7.30pm.

Our next Confirmation Mass will be Saturday (Dec 13th) at 6pm and we will have the official switching on of our Christmas Tree lights in the church and the unveiling of our new church crib.

We will have our Christmas newsletter available next weekend with all the times of Masses over the Christmas and all the other bits and pieces including a colouring competition for the children with lots of lovely book vouchers as prizes!

Christmas Reconciliation Service will be on Wednesday December 17th at 7pm. All welcome! A number of priests from our family of parishes will also attend

The Altar Society - Meeting on December 9th at 10am in the Parish Centre

The Christmas Community Carol Service this year takes place on Friday December 19th at 7.30pm at Saint Mary's Church. All welcome!

The annual Christmas Charity Carrigaline Tractor, Truck and Car run takes place on Sunday December 7th leaving Carrigaline GAA club at 2pm. All welcome to take part. Tea, coffee and warm food will be available after the run!

Crosshaven Parish

Sunday December 7th is the 2nd Sunday of Advent and the theme is peace. The second candle, purple, represents peace. It is called the Bethlehem Candle as a reminder of Mary and Joseph's journey to Bethlehem.

Also on Sunday 7th there is adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at 3.00pm.

Monday December 8th, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, Mass will be celebrated at 10.00am.

NEW POSTURE FOR MASSES began last weekend across our Diocese including our own local churches. You will notice some small changes in how we sit, stand and kneel at Mass. The reason for the changes is that our Diocese of Cork and Ross wants us to do the same postures at Mass, that is happening in other Dioceses across Ireland and Europe. The changes are not too much, and we will guide you through them over the coming weeks.

Most important when you are asked to stand during Mass, it is of course if you are able. It's also ok to sit down if that works better for you.
